The Earnest Money is nonrefundable unless an exception herein applies.
5. Closing Date. Closing will occur on July 5, 2019 (the "Closing Date"), at which point Seller will transfer title to the Property to Buyer. However, either Party may unilaterally delay closing for any reason, but in no event will closing occur more than 30 days after the Closing Date specified herein unless both Parties agree to extend the Closing Date in writing. If closing is delayed or extended as permitted by this Agreement, the Closing Date for purposes of this Agreement will be the date on which closing actually occurs.

6. Delivery of Possession. On the Closing Date, Seller will deliver possession of the Property to Buyer unless the Parties agree to a different date in writing. Seller will maintain all insurance covering the Property until the Closing Date. Seller agrees to deliver the Property in substantially the same condition as its present state and that Buyer will have the opportunity to inspect the Property prior to the Closing Date. If the Property is not in substantially the same condition as its present state upon delivery, Buyer will have the right to either (a) have the Earnest Money and all other deposits refunded and cancel this Agreement, or (b) accept the Property in such condition and require Seller to pay for the repairs to restore the Property to its former condition. Should Buyer choose this second option, all such repairs must be completed no later than 45 days after the Closing Date, with Seller paying Buyer a $200 penalty for each additional day after the 45-day period that such repairs are not complete.
7. Closing Costs. The costs associated with closing this Agreement will be paid as follows:

 - b.  - c. Each Party pays for their own notary fee associated with signing this Agreement, if applicable;
 - d. Each Party agrees to pay for all other cost associated with closing this Agreement in additional writing, if applicable.
8. Escrow Account. A third-party trustee chosen by Buyer will manage the Escrow Account according to the terms of this Agreement. Any procedures followed by the Escrow Account manager must not conflict with the terms herein. 9. Procedure at Closing. On the Closing Date, Buyer and Seller, the Escrow Account manager, and any other party required to be present will gather to execute the necessary documents, at which point the Escrow Account manager will distribute the funds in the Escrow Account to the appropriate parties and file the deed to the Property.  - b. The deed to the Property and any other documentation needed to close the transaction are prepared and delivered to the necessary parties;

 - d. Seller has repaired or removed all material defects on the Property prior to the Closing Date unless waived in writing by Buyer;
 - e. All contingencies stated in this Agreement have been satisfied unless waived in writing; or
 - f. All other conditions of closing stated in this Agreement or required by law are satisfied.
10. Proration. Taxes, assessments, rents, and Homeowners' Association dues, if any, are to be prorated to Seller up to, but not including, the Closing Date. The Parties will coordinate with each other and the utility companies to ensure all utilities are transferred out of Seller's name and into Buyer's name on the Closing Date, including water, sewer, electric, and gas. Any utilities not transferred on the Closing Date will be prorated according to historical average usage for that month or otherwise according to the prior month's charges.
11. Title Requirements
- a. Title Report. Upon executing this Agreement, Seller will order a title report and have it sent to Buyer. Buyer must notify Seller within 10 business days of any objections Buyer has to any existing title defects, including any encumbrance, easement, or other recorded restriction. Upon receiving notice of an objection to a title defect, Seller must cure the defect on or before the Closing Date. Seller may use money deposited from the purchase price to clear any title defect. If Seller fails to cure all defects objected to on or before the Closing Date, Buyer may choose to have the Earnest Money and all other deposits refunded and cancel this Agreement. Alternatively, Buyer may choose to continue the transaction by waiving any title defect in writing.

- b. Title Insurance. Buyer agrees to purchase a standard form property owner's title insurance policy covering the amount of the purchase price for Buyer from a certified insurance company. Such policy will insure Buyer against any defect or encumbrance on the title to the Property other than those stated on the deed transferring title to Buyer.

12. Buyer Contingencies

- a. Financing: Third-Party Lender. Unless waived by Buyer in writing, this Agreement is contingent on Buyer's ability to obtain a financing commitment from an institutional third-party lender on or before July 1, 2019 (the "Financing Contingency Date"). The loan must be at the prevailing interest rate, and the loan must finance at least 80% of the purchase price unless Buyer has sufficient funds by the Contingency Date to pay for the portion of the purchase price not being financed by a third-party lender. Buyer will make a good faith effort to secure such financing by the Contingency Date; however, if Buyer is nonetheless unable to secure such financing, this Agreement will be canceled and the Earnest Money and all other deposits will be refunded to the respective Parties.
 - i. Commitment or Denial Statement. Buyer will provide Seller a copy of a commitment or denial statement from the third-party lender by the Financing Contingency Date. If Buyer does not provide Seller a copy of a commitment or denial statement from the third-party lender by the Financing Contingency Date, this Agreement will be canceled and Buyer will forfeit to Seller the Earnest Money and all other deposits made by Buyer. If Buyer does provide Seller a copy of a denial statement from the third-party lender by the Financing Contingency Date and Buyer so requests, Seller may choose to give written consent to extend the Financing Contingency Date to allow Buyer additional time to secure financing. In this event, if Seller does not then extend financing by the extended Financing Contingency Date this Agreement will be canceled and the Earnest Money and all other deposits will be refunded to the respective Parties.
 - ii. Alternative Financing. Buyer reserves the right to obtain alternative financing by the Financing Contingency Date, but any alternative financing obtained must not result in any increased costs to Seller.
- b. Appraisal. Unless waived by Buyer in writing, this Agreement is contingent on the Property receiving an appraisal for an amount equal to or greater than the purchase price. Buyer will pay for and obtain an appraisal of the Property within 10 business days of this Agreement. If the appraised value of the Property is for less than the purchase price, either Party may choose to renegotiate for a new purchase price prior to the Closing Date, and, if the Parties are unable to agree on a new purchase price prior to the Closing Date, this Agreement will be canceled and the Earnest Money and all other deposits will be refunded to the respective Parties.

- c. Inspection. Unless waived by Buyer in writing, this Agreement is contingent on Buyer receiving an inspection report on the condition of the Property from a reputable inspection company. Buyer must pay for and have the inspection completed within 10 business days of this Agreement. If the inspection is not completed within 10 business days of this Agreement, Buyer will be said to have waived this inspection contingency unless the delay is on the part of the inspection company, in which case the inspection must be completed within 15 business days of this Agreement. If the inspection report discovers the existence of a material defect, as defined below, Buyer may choose to either (a) accept the defect and continue with this Agreement, (b) negotiate a reduction of the purchase price, (c) cancel this Agreement and have the Earnest Money and all other deposits refunded to the respective Parties, or (d) request that Seller repair the material defect. If Buyer chooses to negotiate a reduction of the purchase price, the Parties will have 10 business days to reach an agreement, otherwise this Agreement will be canceled and the Earnest Money and all other deposits will be refunded to the respective Parties. If Buyer requests that Seller repair the material defect and Seller fails to repair the material defect within 10 days of Seller receiving notice of it, Buyer may choose to cancel this Agreement and have the Earnest Money and all other deposits refunded to the respective Parties. Seller will pay the cost of any re-inspection to confirm repairs were made.
 - i. Violation of Local Ordinance. If the inspection report discovers that repairs are required to bring the Property in conformance with any local ordinance and Seller fails to repair the material defect within 10 days of Seller receiving notice of it, Buyer may choose to cancel this Agreement and have the Earnest Money and all other deposits refunded to the respective Parties.
 - ii. Notice of Repairs. If repairs are requested by Buyer or are required to bring the Property in conformance with any local ordinances. Seller covenants to provide Buyer written notice of any such repairs made to the Property within 5 business days of completing the repairs or by the Closing Date, whichever occurs first.
- d. Waiver of Contingencies. If Buyer so chooses, Buyer may waive any or all contingencies set forth herein by so stating in a signed writing.

13. Seller Representations and Warranties

- a. Marketable Title. Seller represents that it owns the Property in fee and has the authority and capacity to enter into this Agreement. Unless waived by Buyer in writing, Seller agrees to disclose known material facts and material defects affecting the Property, including known insurance claims within the past 5 years, and make any and all other disclosures required by law within 5 business days of this Agreement. At Buyer's own expense, Buyer has the right to conduct investigations into the disclosed material facts and material defects. Based upon the information discovered from such investigations, Buyer may choose to cancel this Agreement and have the Earnest Money and all other deposits refunded to the respective Parties or request Seller make repairs or take other action.

- e. Environmental Threats. Seller represents that it has no knowledge of any existing or impending environmental threat that poses a substantial risk of significantly diminishing the value of the Property or that would impair Buyer's intended use of the Property such that it would be unconscionable for Seller not to disclose it. Examples of such threats include, without limitation, environmental hazards, toxic substances, endangered species, sinkholes, pollution, and pest problems.

- f. Government Assessments. Local governments may periodically charge property owners an assessment for improvements that benefit their properties, such as sidewalks or sewers. - g. Mechanic's Liens. Seller covenants to pay off any existing mechanic's liens on the Property on or before the Closing Date and to ensure that any labor or materials furnished between the signing of this Agreement and closing will be paid for in full on or before Closing Date.
- h. Foreign Investment In Real Property Tax Act (FIRPTA). Seller represents it is not a foreign person or foreign corporation as defined by the Foreign Investment In Real Property Tax Act (FIRPTA), and, therefore, Buyer will not be required to comply with the withholding requirements of FIRPTA at closing.
- i. Survival of Warranties. Seller's warranties in this section will continue through and survive the Closing Date, the completion of this Agreement, and the delivery of the deed and possession of the Property to Buyer.
